

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Circle ALL adjectives.

1. The followers of Christ were first called Christians at Antioch.
2. British troops occupied Egypt during a violent uprising in 1882.
3. Classical Greek literature was often imitated by Renaissance scholars.
4. Millions of East German people were separated from freedom by the Iron Curtain.
5. The Nazi-Soviet Pact, an alliance signed by Hitler and Stalin, was invalidated when German troops invaded Russia.
6. King Henry VIII led England out of the Roman Catholic church and founded the Anglican church.
7. The Spanish conquistadors plundered the Maya and Aztec Indians in Central America.
8. Robert Moffat was a Scottish missionary to Africa.
9. In early colonial days, the British government supported the Anglican churches in America.
10. Napoleon III, nephew of Napoleon Bonaparte, was the last French emperor.
11. In Roman mythology, Diana was the name given to the Greek goddess Artemis.
12. Horace Mann, an American educator, reorganized the Massachusetts school system.
13. The original Pledge of Allegiance was first published in the Boston magazine Youth's Companion.
14. Gabriel Fahrenheit, a Dutch instrument maker, developed the mercury thermometer.
15. "Rich port" is the English translation for Puerto Rico.
16. Matt gingerly tasted the raw oysters.
17. The Lord Jesus remained in the tomb three days.
18. The nursery man grew several types of evergreens.
19. Switzerland remained neutral during both world wars.
20. In the optical illusion, the lines appeared crossed and distorted.

