

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Circle ALL one-word adverbs.

1. Paul loved the Lord so much that he was willing to suffer manifold tortures for His sake.
2. The carpenter walked across the beams very skillfully.
3. Quite often the final work done by a person is called his "swan song."
4. A toboggan can slide across the snow surprisingly fast.
5. If one does not memorize while he is young, memorization will be much more difficult later.
6. The hunter sat perfectly still, waiting for a deer to approach.
7. They no longer consider these animals an endangered species.
8. Using a shoehorn made his shoe go on more easily.
9. The congregation gave quite generously to the special offering.
10. Men give nothing so liberally as their advice.
11. Because the silkworms were so highly valued, many people tried to import them.
12. The sap run was particularly abundant this year.
13. Matthew successfully negotiated all of the turns on the driving course.
14. With the Holy Spirit's aid, Peter spoke much more boldly than he had spoken previously.
15. Hurricanes are a very real threat in Florida from June 1 to November 30.
16. The mills of God grind slowly but surely.
17. The misplaced military orders will undoubtedly be discovered somewhere.
18. Red is one of the most popular colors for international flags.
19. It is always fun to make up limericks or play charades at parties.
20. Reprove thy friend privately: commend him publicly.

