

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Circle the correct verb form in parentheses.

1. Here (is, are) the bone china you ordered.
2. The Gleaners (was, were) painted in 1857 by Jean Francois Millet.
3. Ten minutes (is, are) enough time to finish the assignment.
4. The news in the letters (was, were) an answer to prayer.
5. Plasma (are, is) the liquid portion of the blood, as distinguished from the blood cells.
6. President Wilson and Prime Minister Lloyd George (was, were) leaders in World War I.
7. Luis, together with his three cousins, (is, are) visiting us.
8. The Supreme Court (was, were) in disagreement about several important issues.
9. The judge and the jury (is, are) waiting for the final witness to appear.
10. Observing and listening (is, are) two great aids to learning.
11. Good grammar and clear composition (is, are) important in every field.
12. The Adventures of Tom Sawyer (was, were) published in 1876 by Samuel Clemens.
13. There (lies, lie) the ruins of ancient Pompeii.
14. Either physics or chemistry (was, were) required in her junior year.
15. Half-truths (is, are) the mother of deceit.
16. Approximately two thirds of a human body (is, are) water.
17. A woman the Millers know (make, makes) partridge stuffing with apples and sausage.
18. Although the word sable means "black" sable fur (are, is) brown.
19. I have heard that frog legs (tastes, taste) like chicken.
20. The flashing light of the fireflies (fascinate, fascinates) little children.

