

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Circle the correct pronoun form in parentheses.

1. (Whoever, Whomever) failed to worship Nebuchadnezzar was put into the fiery furnace.
2. The participants in the Sword drill are (we, us) and (them, they).
3. The most frequently mentioned Bible saints are John, Paul, and (they, them).
4. The missionary to (who, whom) I will write is serving in Bolivia.
5. From (who, whom) did America receive the Statue of Liberty?
6. George Herbert is a poet (who, whom) they can study with interest.
7. (Who, Whom) did he say would be his partner?
8. Pastor Kegler was the minister (who, whom) built the day school.
9. George Whitefield was an evangelist (whom, who) John Wesley knew well.
10. Sketch a drawing of (whomever, whoever) you want.
11. Few children learn to ride a bicycle without receiving (his, their) share of bruises.
12. Neither the boy nor his sisters gave (his, their) time to help plan the youth outing.
13. The cellist and the violinist are arranging (his, their) music for the concert.
14. The manager gave (they, them) and (I, me) a tour of the factory.
15. Our mother taught (us, we) children the ABC's before we were three.
16. Each of the students set up (their, his) patriotic project in the lecture hall.
17. Everybody sang (his, their) best at the revival meetings.
18. Each of the artists has displayed (their, his) paintings on the sidewalk.
19. Anyone that cannot control (his, their) temper is not a mature person.
20. The quiz was passed by (whomever, whoever) studied the lesson.

