

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Underline ALL direct objects and circle ALL indirect objects (including objects within clauses).

1. Daniel gave the credit to God for the interpretation of dreams.
2. Jonathan loved David like his own brother.
3. Sydney wrote Jesse a letter from Portugal.
4. Everyone in the Pep Club wore the school colors on the day of the game.
5. The eagle carried its prey in its claws.
6. We took Jordan and Caleb the assignments they had missed.
7. Tasting the hot soup cautiously, Marie found it to be too salty.
8. The lookout sounded the alarm when he spotted the conning tower of an enemy submarine.
9. I found the poem difficult to understand.
10. My brother and I dug the potatoes and picked the squash.
11. The linebacker saved the game with his fierce tackle.
12. Did Hercules bring the king the three golden apples?
13. Miss Boysen read the boys and girls Kipling's story about the mongoose.
14. Some mosquitoes can give humans and animals malaria.
15. The students gave the retiring teacher a farewell gift.
16. People often debate the morality of trade relations with Communist countries.
17. Do you think me an enemy because I tell you the truth?
18. When I spoke out of turn, my mom gave me a look of mild disapproval.
19. I hardly felt the needle when I was given the shot.
20. Careful preparation usually prevents careless mistakes and costly errors.

