

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Underline ALL direct objects and circle ALL retained objects (including objects within clauses).

1. The horned owl can silently approach and surprise its prey.
2. Christians are given strength by daily devotions.
3. The witnesses were asked clever questions by Sherlock Holmes.
4. Solomon was granted great wisdom.
5. The mother grizzly bear actually spans her disobedient cubs.
6. The skunk's spray will burn the eyes of attacking animals.
7. The class was shown some slides from Nathan's trip to Maine.
8. Cottontail rabbits can transmit tularemia and parasites to humans.
9. Jason and Matt were given extra help.
10. Many tropical birds eat ants and other insects.
11. People are offered an excellent example in the ant.
12. Melissa was taught the art of making animal-shaped balloons.
13. Giraffes prefer leaves and shoots from the tops of acacia trees.
14. A cow has four stomach compartments for the digestion of food.
15. The retiring teacher was given a farewell gift.
16. Customers are often sold matching shoes and purses.
17. The Viceroy butterfly was given unique camouflaged protection.
18. River otters eat trout and other types of fish.
19. The mayor was granted his wish.
20. The king was brought the three golden apples.

