

Name: _____

Date: _____

I. Underline ALL appositives and circle ALL nouns of direct address.

1. The Statue of Liberty, a symbol of American freedom, was a gift from France.
2. Leprosy, a dreaded skin disease, rarely causes death.
3. Robert, are you planning to attend the service?
4. Stonewall Jackson, a great Confederate general, was accidentally shot by his own men.
5. You did an excellent job on your research paper, Brooke.
6. George Washington, the first United States President, was a good friend of Lafayette, a Frenchman.
7. Samuel, have you read the novel The Red Badge of Courage?
8. God used Matthew and Mark, followers of Christ, to write two of the Gospels.
9. Did you know, Erica, that the Louisiana Purchase was acquired for about three cents an acre?
10. Mozart, a musical genius, died in poverty and was buried in a pauper's grave.
11. Thomas, the fire extinguisher is outside the door!
12. Foxes, members of the dog family, are quick, skillful hunters.
13. Joe, when you went to the youth rally, did you see my cousin Michelle?
14. Hudson Taylor, a missionary to China, suffered many hardships for his Saviour.
15. Haley, have you heard of General Nathanael Greene, "the Fighting Quaker"?
16. A thesaurus, a dictionary of synonyms and antonyms, is a vital tool for a serious writer.
17. Saul, the first king of Israel, was taller than any other man in the nation.
18. Return those overdue books today, Laura.
19. At one time, Peter denied Jesus Christ, his Lord and Saviour, but later he preached boldly about Him.
20. God's Word, the Bible, definitely teaches the doctrine of the Trinity.

